

Vaccine Tips

October 2015

How Well Do You Actually Know VFC Rules? Take this quiz and find out!

Which of these is a VFC requirement?

- Keep your vaccine fridge and freezer plugged in at all times
- Have a current and valid certificate of calibration for every thermometer
- Have a readily-available back-up thermometer with a current and valid certificate of calibration
- Have an up-to-date and signed Vaccine Management Plan & an Emergency Management Plan
- Know when to document temperatures and what to do if they go out-of-range

They are all VFC requirements.

If you selected all of them, congratulations!

If you missed something, make sure to discuss it with your supervisor.
