Subject: 2016-17 Influenza Vaccine Identification Guide and other flu season resources

Dear EZIZ Users,

It's not too early to get started in planning for the upcoming flu season! We encourage you to take advantage of the following resources:

- Download the 2016-17 Influenza Vaccine Identification Guide, now available on EZIZ.org. This guide includes all basic information about the flu vaccines available this season.
- Register for the Virtual Immunization Communication Network's webinar, "Looking Ahead to the 2016-2017 Flu Season: Vaccine Options and Messages," on August 30th from 11am-12pm.
- Visit EZIZ.org for additional flu and respiratory disease prevention resources.

We encourage you to forward this communication to your colleagues and local networks.
